FORT MYER HEIGHTS-READ THE "POST" of July 5, giving official information from the War Department about the new memorial bridge. The government invites 15 of the most eminent bridg; evgineers in the United States to submit plans and bids for the memorial bridge to cross the river at the old observatory. The "Post" further says: "The President is very greatly interested in the project and would be glad to see it commenced, at least, during his administration." The wise Individual without a dollar in his pocket, who has continually thrown a serious expression on his face and predicted this bridge would never be built, has left the city on the midnight freight train for parts unknown, while the shrewd investor bought up property across the river which a few years ago was of little value and bids fair now to bring city prices in the Lear future. In fact, lots across the river sold recently at $1.00 a sq. ft. (at the rate of $43,569 an acre). The wise individual never thres himself to find the source of information by which thoesands of his fellow men are growing richer while he is growing cider and poorer. The man who speculates in real estate may at times go broke and at times have his hundreds of thousands, while the other fellow, never has anything. The less money you have, the more important it is for you to speculate, as it is only the rich who can afford to apeculate, as it is only the rich who can afford to apeculate, as it is only the rich who can afford to apeculate, as it is only the rich who can afford to apeculate, so it is only the rich who can afford to apeculate, so it is only the rich who can afford to apeculate, as it is only the rich who can afford to appeculate, as it is only the rich who can afford to appeculate, as it is only the rich who can afford to appeculate, as it is only the rich who can afford to appeculate in our section in the last few years than all the other suburbs around Washington, Remember, WANTED-A FEW SELECT BOARDERS; 2

TAYLOR AND BROWN

The Convicted Murderer Chats and Laughs With His Guard.

His Accomplice Nervous - Taylor Declares Latter Responsible-Sorry He Didn't Kill Hebron.

Special Correspondence of The Evening Star. FREDERICK, Md., July 7, 1899. Armstead Taylor, convicted of the murder of Mrs. Dora Rosenstein, does not seem the much affected. He is gloomy, despondent ed in the Baltimore jail by drinking the ed in the Baltimore jail by drinking the contents of a bottle of fire extinguisher, which, however, was harmless. John W. Williams of Boyd's, who has so earnestly worked up the case against Taylor and secured the connecting links of the testimony, visited Taylor today and spoke to him, but Taylor would not respond other than muttering something and looking ugly, recognizing Mr. Williams as one to whom he confessed and one that took part in his conviction. Taylor said, in response to a question asked about the sentence and what he thought of it, that others had been what he thought of it, that others had been what he thought of it, that others had been hung before him and others would be hung after him. He was only sorry that he hadn't killed Hebron, the negro at Washington who informed on him. Taylor sticks to the confession that he made implicating Brown and says that Brown is the whole cause of the trayedy. Nellia Turner. whole cause of the tragedy. Nellie Turner, who testified on the stand Wednesday and identified the pants that were found in a barn of Mr. Jno. Carlins, within 200 yards of the murder, as Brown's, now says that she must be mistaken, as the pants shown her had white ribbed stripes, but those of Brown's were plain white stripes. She seems uneasy about this testimony.

WILLIAM PRAISES FRENCH SAILORS

Exchange of Compliments Between the Emperor and Loubet. Emperor William invited the officers and sixty cadets of the French training ship Iphigenie, which he visited there Thursday and inspected, and the German cadets of the training ship Gneisenau, to meet at an entertainment last night on board the Berngel To the President of the French Republic, Paris: I have had the pleasure to see on board the schoolship Iphigenie young French sailors whose military bearing and sym-pathetic demeanor, worthy of their coun-try, made a deep impression upon me. My sailor's heart and spirit of comradeship rejoiced at the gracious welcome accorded me by her commander, officers and crew, I congratulate myself, Monsieur le President, on the happy circumstances which permitted me to meet the Iphigenie and your amiable countrymen. WILLIAM. (Signed)
